

Kevin's Puzzle of the Week

Party Planning

I threw five birthday parties for five different women last summer. Each birthday was in a different month, on a different date, and had a unique theme.

- 1) None of the women have ever had a birthday on Memorial Day, Independence Day, or Labor Day.
- 2) In some order, the five parties were the party for Angelina, the party for Lucille, the murder mystery party, the tropical getaway party, and the party on August 1st.
- 3) Florence's party was sometime before Isabelle's.
- 4) There was less than a month between the party in June and the party in July.
- 5) The basketball party was for a woman whose birthday is on the 4th of the month.
- 6) Deborah is a Gemini.
- 7) The pony party occurred two months before the tropical getaway party.
- 8) Lucille and the woman whose birthday is on the 25th were on a 3-on-3 team with the birthday girl at the basketball party.
